WEIGHING SYSTEM.

INTERNAL REVENUE BUREAU.

The New System Will Determine the Quantity of Spirits Placed in Casks and Packages—Other Dispatches Telegraphed from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Commissioner Mason, of the internal revenue bureau, has been considering for some time the advisability and practicability of adopting what is known as the weighing system for the official determination of the quantity of spirits placed in casks and packages. This system, if adopted, will take the place of the present one by which the contents of a cask is determined by the use of the gauging instruments as now practiced.

The law makes it the duty of the commissioner to prescribe rules and regulations for a uniform system of weighing, marking, gauging and inspection of spirits. The commissioner desires to adopt the best means attainable to secure that system which is the most correct. It seems to be universally conceded by all conversant with the two systems that that of weighing is much more accurate. The internal revenue office has prepared tables showing the weight of a gallon of spirits at any given strength. Alcohol being lighter than water, of course, the stronger the spirits are, the less they will weigh.

The present system is regarded as undesirable for the reason that it only approaches accuracy when the casks are made in regular form, and the inside surfaces completely smooth. A very slight change in the curvature of the staves will very materially affect the holding capacity of the cask, as indicated by the gauge rod. A slight difference in the thickness of the staves or heads of a package will produce the same effect. All these difficulties will be overcome by the use of the weighing system.

The question of soaking and absorption of the spirits by the various classes of barrels during various periods, is one of the questions which is at present engaging the attention of the office. It is known that an ordinary charred barrel will absorb from three to twelve pounds of spirits, according to the period of time the spirits have remained in the cask. This is also affected by the nature of the wood composing the barrel and temperature at which the spirits have been kept. Under the present system of gauging the spirits absorbed by the wood are not measured. The government loses the tax and the distiller the spirits.

Under the weighing system the spirits absorbed into the wood would add to the weight of the package. The commissioner has requested distillers throughout the country to assist his office in arriving at some conclusion as to the average amount of spirits that will be absorbed, and it is probable that a deduction will be made from the gross weight of packages on this account. With the adoption of the weighing system it will be necessary to have scales at every distillery and rectifying house for the purpose of weighing the spirits, but it is not intended that the distillers shall be put to the expense of procuring these.

Should the system be put in operation the government will procure the scales. It is believed that this system is perfectly practicable at all places and under all conditions, except in the case of spirits that have been rectified or compounded by the addition of saccharine matter, and here the present system of gauging will have to be continued.

It is necessary to know the strength of the spirits as well as their weight, under the weighing system, so that it will be impracticable to ascertain the quantity of spirits in a package by this method where any considerable quantity of saccharine matter has been added, for the reason that the strength of the spirits cannot be determined after such addition.

This change is regarded as a matter of very considerable importance, and Commissioner Mason has been going over the subject slowly and carefully for several months, with a view to adopting the new system.

Hearst's Latest Venture.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—W. R. Hearst, proprietor of the San Francisco Examiner, contemplates erecting here in the vicinity of Newspaper Row, a commodious structure which will cost nearly $2,000,000. It will be named the Examiner building, and will be designed and built with a view to accommodating press associations and newspaper correspondents, with rooms specially adapted to their business wants, and to make it the headquarters of the correspondents of Washington. The Examiner Indian depredation and claims bureau will also be located in this building.

Mr. Hearst is now in the east having recently come from the Pacific coast, stopping at Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, New York and Boston, where he is negotiating with a number of leading journals to join the San Francisco Examiner, the Omaha Bee and the St. Paul Pioneer Press in the prosecution of Indian depredation claims against the government. The originator of the idea of a combination of leading journals to prosecute these claims was the late Senator Hearst, and Mr. Hearst in establishing this gigantic claims bureau is carrying out a long cherished scheme of his father, the California senator, which found full fruition in the bill passed by the last congress transferring Indian depredation claims from the interior department to the United States court of claims.

All Coming to the Fair.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Lieutenant Scriven, the special commissioner to the Central American states, writes from Guatemala under date of Aug. 24, that the commission appointed by the president of that republic to prepare an exhibit for the world's fair had been fully organized and are already deeply engaged in their work. Plenty of money for the purpose has been placed at their disposal by the government and the country is being canvassed to secure a full exhibit of its resources and industries.

HAWAII'S QUEEN WIDOWED.

Tragedy on a Steamer as the Result of an Elopement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The steamship Mariposa arrived Saturday from Australia via Honolulu. Hon. John Dominis, Prince Consort of Hawaii, died Aug. 26 from a sudden attack of pneumonia. Queen Liliuokalani was much affected by the death of her husband. The remains were lying in state at the palace when the steamer left.

The petition to wind up the affairs of the Imperial Banking company, of Melbourne, was presented to Justice Webb Aug. 10, and made returnable on the 24th. The bank suspended business with liabilities of £178,000 and assets of £220,000. At a meeting of stockholders it was charged that the directors had conducted the affairs in a negligent and illegal manner. The chairman of the meeting said it was not anticipated that the company's affairs would be settled for a year more.

Ceylon advices of July 9 give details of a double tragedy which occurred on the steamship Hohenzollern, which left Adelaide, June 23. Lawrence M. Davidson eloped with Miss Ayliffe, his wife's sister, and reported to be a daughter of the registrar general of births and deaths, of Adelaide. A warrant had been issued for their arrest, and it is presumed this came to their knowledge, for, as the vessel reached port, Davidson shot himself through the head and the girl swallowed strychnine, dying shortly afterwards.

The postmaster general of New Zealand has given assurances that the contract between that government and the steamship companies for carrying the mails between Auckland and San Francisco will be renewed.

Prince Dominis was born in Schenectady, N. Y., May 10, 1832. His father was an Italian and his mother an American lady of Boston. He was taken to Hawaii when a child.

The United States steamer Charleston arrived at Honolulu Aug. 28, eight days from San Francisco.

A severe shock of earthquake occurred at the islands Aug. 25. As far as known no great damage was done.

KILLED BY DOGS.

Six Mastiffs Chew a Little Boy in a Horrible Manner.

WHEELING, Sept. 7.—Edward Gillis, nine years old, had a horrible and fatal experience in this city last evening. Young Gillis was playing in the street, and near at hand was a dog kennel in which were confined six huge English mastiffs. While playing Gillis began teasing the dogs, and they became fearfully enraged. One of the dogs broke down the door, and the six ferocious brutes made a fierce attack on the boy. He was knocked down at the first onslaught, and all the dogs began biting and chewing him.

Policeman James Carney, assisted by William Robinson, armed with revolvers and crowbars, finally reached the infuriated animals, but it was impossible to make them loosen their holds, and Carney shot five of the dogs dead while they were still chewing and biting their victim. The sixth brute escaped. Gillis' wounds are terrible. His eyes, ears and nose were literally bitten out, and his body has no fewer than sixty wounds. The dogs that were killed were valued at $100 each.

A Poisoned Well.

DUNDEE, Mich., Sept. 7.—Five people have died in this vicinity from the poisonous effects of water from a well on the Gilson farm, near Deerfield. Something over two weeks since a threshing crew was at work on Gilson's place. The engine drew its supply of water from the well on the premises. The well is not an abundant one, and as a result of the unusual demand upon it the water became very low. It was observed to be rather muddy and repulsive to the taste, but it was the only water on the place and everybody drank of it as usual. Those who have died are three children of Gilson and two farm hands. Twenty-five others are affected, about half of them seriously.

Robber Run Down.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—"Big Ed" Hennessy, leader of one of the most dangerous gangs of confidence operators in the country, was arrested yesterday afternoon by officers of the Central police station at the instance of John T. Norris, the irrepressible detective from Ohio. Norris wants Hennessy for complicity in a series of robberies in western Missouri, of which well-to-do farmers were the victims. One old man, named C. W. Funk, of Knox county, Mo., was robbed of $2,000; another, Thomas Blackburn, of Albany county, of $7,500, and a third, Stephen Trice, of Lathrop, of $3,500.

Convicts Refuse to Eat Beans.

HARTFORD, Sept. 7.—About forty criminals at the state prison, at Wethersfield, on Saturday, refused to eat beans which had been cooked for dinner. The warden promptly sent nine of the stubborn prisoners to their cells and afterwards placed the two ringleaders in solitary confinement, this ending the trouble.

Stationary Engineers.

OMAHA, Sept. 7.—The National Association of Stationary Engineers, in session here, Friday elected the following officers: William Powell, of Cleveland, president; Thomas J. Holmes, of Chicago, vice president; William H. Crowley, of Jersey City, secretary, and R. J. Smith, of San Francisco, treasurer.

WAR CLOUD COMING.

Several Foreign Countries Will Be Involved.

RUSSIA IS THE INSTIGATOR.

Polish Devotion to Austria Making Itself Apparent to the Whole World—The Great Dardanelles Question Causing Some Alarm Throughout England. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A Vienna dispatch says that the Austrian emperor is to some extent compensated for the disloyal attitude of the Bohemians by the devotion of the Galician Poles. The latter are even eager to see war break out in order that they may have a chance to avenge their national wrongs in Russia, which country they hold chiefly responsible for the destruction of Poland. At Cracow the people march in the streets singing the Polish national hymn and rhymes violently abusive of Russia, and some even personally directed at the czar.

The police make a pretence of interfering at times, but it is said that the Austrian authorities are secretly pleased with the manifestations as a counterpoise to the anti-Austrian agitation in Bohemia, which is attributed chiefly to Russian influences. All indications are that, in the event of a Russian invasion of Galicia, the Poles will rise as one man to battle against their hereditary enemies. The reason for Polish devotion to Austria is that nowhere has Austrian rule been more beneficent than in Austrian Poland, where it contrasts sharply with the oppression exercised by the Russians on the other side of the border.

The Dardanelles Question.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—It is reported that the British foreign office will take vigorous measures in a few days to bring the Dardanelles question to a settlement. Lord Salisbury has been mild in his policy toward Turkey, so much so that there has been much complaint among British subjects at Constantinople that less respect is shown for them than for the Germans. Now, however, it is rumored on sound authority that the attitude will be changed and that a bold demand will be made upon the sultan to take a stand against the claims of Russia. There appears to be no substantial ground for the report that Germany and Austria have given Lord Salisbury any advice on the subject. He has not yet asked their advice, and possibly may not, until he has exhausted the resources of British diplomacy at Constantinople. Then if he finds the porte obstinately bent upon yielding to Russia, he will probably consult the other powers. Lord Salisbury, it is reported in usually well informed circles, will not, under any circumstances, consent to the passage of the Dardanelles by Russian war vessels under any guise.

Sedan Celebration.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—In many parts of Germany yesterday the people celebrated the anniversary of the week, which, twenty-one years ago, witnessed the overthrow of the French and the surrender of Napoleon at Sedan. The day is known as "Sedan Day." The troops were absent at the maneuvers, but multitudes of civilians visited the cemeteries and placed flowers on the graves of the soldiers. It was noticed that the interest in the occasion was even greater than last year, and the common talk of the people was that the scenes of 1870-71 might soon again be repeated. The war feeling in Germany is very strong and there is a general sentiment that the present tension cannot long continue, and that France will either have to fight or assume a more conciliatory attitude.

Salvation Army Riot.

EASTBOURNE, Sept. 7.—This city had its usual Sunday Salvation Army riot yesterday, or was threatened with it. As soon as the Salvation Army started from the barracks to go on their march, crowds gathered as usual and began to hoot and revile the Salvationists. The police persuaded the latter to return to their barracks, and after a few rows the mob dispersed.

Valuable Donation.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—One hundred thousand acres of crown land, and the sum of £5,000 yearly have been donated by the government to the University of Brisbane, Queensland. This liberality is considered sufficient to insure the future of the institution.

BATTLE WITH TRAIN ROBBERS.

Thirteen Robbers and Two of the Pursuers Reported Killed.

UVALDE, Tex., Sept. 7.—The train robbers who were thought to have escaped across the Rio Grande river with a sum, said to be $20,000, which they secured from the express car on the Southern Pacific railway, were met Friday by a body of rangers who had been in pursuit, and a battle took place. From reports received thirteen of the robbers and two rangers were killed and several of both sides were wounded. The rangers followed what was thought to be the course pursued by the robbers through the mountain passes, and although they had at several times lost the trail, they pulled up on the robbers. Thursday they discovered unmistakable evidence that the men were but a few miles ahead of them, and were headed toward Las Vegas.

The pursuers pulled up on the bandits strongly, and made better time, for after pushing on a portion of the night they were rewarded by falling in with the outlaws.

The engagement was short, as the bandits were outnumbered. They held the best position, however, and stood their ground until their dead and wounded were so great that resistance was impossible, and then the remainder fled. It is said that two men escaped.

HIGHWAY HORROR.

A Brutal Murder, Cold-Blooded and Unprovoked.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Late Friday evening three farmers, named John Carter, John Schissler and George Barrow, came to the city for a spree, and late Friday night started for home in a wagon. They live nine miles from this city. About seven miles from the city, Carter and Barrow, between whom is an old-existing grudge, began quarreling and became very bitter in their language.

Carter was the worst of the two, and wanted to stop the wagon and fight Barrow in the road. Finally he tired of this, and drawing a Barlow knife, suddenly leaped forward, and catching Barrow by the hair drew his head back and cut his throat from ear to ear. Then threatening Schissler, who was driving, he jumped from the wagon and escaped. The wounded man was driven hurriedly to a neighboring doctor where he died in a few minutes.

A posse of farmers, headed by Charlie Barrow, a brother of the murdered man, started in pursuit of Carter and finally ran him down at West Franklin just as he was preparing to cross to the Kentucky shore. He showed fight, but was overpowered by numbers and captured. The presence of the Posey county sheriff alone prevented a lynching.

Carter is a desperado of the worst kind, and given to boasting of his crimes and deeds.

Barrow was a quiet man, and averse to quarrels, and the murder was unprovoked and cold-blooded.

TORE UP THE TRACK.

Prominent Chicago Citizens in a Midnight Mob.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The spectacle of prominent citizens with crowbars, shovels and pickaxes at work on the railroad track was interesting Saturday night at Illinois and St. Clair streets, and several hundred yards of track are now lying in the ditch. Several years ago George Bullen & Company laid a private switch from the Northwestern tracks to their malt house at Illinois and St. Clair streets, despite the protests of the property owners on Illinois street, and have maintained it ever since.

Frequent threats to tear up the tracks have been made, and shortly after midnight a gang of one hundred men armed with crowbars, shovels and pickaxes marched to Bullen's sidetrack and began the work of destruction. The mob was hard at work when officers arrived and dispersed them. Several of the ringleaders were arrested, among them being Alderman McAbee, Florence Dorney and James Murphy.

MYSTERY UNSOLVED.

No Clue to the Murderer That Shot Bootblack Metz.

FORTORIA, O., Sept. 7.—There is as yet not the slightest clue to the identity of the person who murdered young Metz, the bootblack, whose body was discovered last Friday. The prevailing impression now seems to be that the boy may have been in some one's yard robbing his fruit trees, and was fired on. From the direction taken by the shot in the boy's face and neck, he must have been at some elevation, which gives strength to the theory.

The shot killing him, he was dragged to the lonely spot where he was found. He is known to have had a quarrel with some other bootblacks for cutting the price of a shine to five cents, and some are of the belief that he was murdered by some companion in a moment of anger. The remains were viewed by the coroner, after which they were shipped to Tiffin, where his parents live. The coroner has not yet given a verdict, but the mysterious affair will be thoroughly investigated.

Tragedy at a Ball Game.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 7.—A terrible tragedy was enacted Saturday at the ball park in the suburban village of Johnstown, Licking county. Charles Robinson and James Needles, young men who were among the players, quarreled as to whether one had touched the other out at first base. Robinson drew a pocket-knife and cut a gash four inches long in Needles' abdomen. Both had been drinking. A Columbus surgeon was sent for and pronounced Needles' injury fatal. Robinson was placed under arrest.

Affecting Milk Cows.

THORNTOWN, Ind., Sept. 7.—A disease has made its appearance among the cattle in the vicinity of Sugar Plain, near here. It resembles the disease prevalent among the cattle in certain portions of Illinois, and seems to partake of the nature of an epidemic. The visible effects are in the mouth and feet, the mouth becoming sore, causing the animal to froth, and the feet become so tender that the animal moves about with difficulty. One peculiarity about the disease is that only milk cows are affected.

A Dynamite Fiasco.

FINDLAY, O., Sept. 7.—Saturday afternoon, while a number of men were threshing wheat, the machine exploded, wrecking the place. William Mull was killed and four others seriously injured. On investigation it was found that a dynamite cartridge had been placed in a sheaf of wheat by some person unknown, causing the explosion.

Two Children Drowned.

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 7.—The two daughters of Henry Hughes, of Thomaston, Ellen, aged ten, and Catherine, four years, wandered away from home Friday afternoon. On a search being made their two bodies were found in the Naugatuck river.

Impaled on a Fence.

LAGRANGE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Dennis Dupuy, a farmer living near Mongo, this county, fell from a load of clover hay Saturday and impaled himself upon a sharp stake, which penetrated his body fourteen inches. He was fatally injured.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1891.

The people of Ohio, in the present campaign, should bear in mind that the Democratic Legislature last spring passed the new school book law making a reduction of 33 per cent. on all school books, thus saving the people annually $150,000 that has heretofore gone into the pockets of the school book ring.

For some reason not yet explained, says the Chicago Herald, Major McKinley failed in his great opening speech to refer to the fact that under his robber tariff on wools and woolens, girls are making pantaloons in Chicago for 6 cents a dozen and sewing on cloaks at the rate of 40 cents for fifteen hours. If protection makes wages high what is the matter with the employees of the Chicago sweat-shops?

At the last Democratic convention Major B. G. Swango, Major Alex Grant and Mr. T. B. Bullock were among the aspirants for Register of the Land Office. The first named was nominated and was elected. Last week he announced that he had selected Messrs. Grant and Bullock for the principal clerkships under him. Putting this and that together it is easy to see that there was a pooling of issues at the State convention, as far as this office was concerned. Of course the division of the spoils was to follow. That's the politics of the present day, and we can't see that anyone has a right to kick.

Since Major Swango has rendered himself ineligible by failure to qualify, the only way he can enjoy any of the profits of the office is for the Governor to appoint Mr. Grant or Mr. Bullock and then let Mr. Swango take a clerkship. But will the Governor do this? That's no doubt the question that is now agitating the parties most interested.

The law is very plain, and there is but little doubt that Major G. B. Swango, who was elected Register of the Land Office last month, has rendered himself ineligible thereto for the next two years. The section of the General Statutes on the subject says:

"If the official bond is not given and the oath of office taken within thirty days of the time when the officer was elected or received notice of his appointment, or of the time when his appointment ought to take effect, the office shall be considered vacant, and he shall not be re-eligible thereto for two years."

Judge Van B. Young of the Superior Court, in a talk with a representative of the Courier-Journal, tries to make it appear that the thirty days date from the time the officer receives official notice of his election, but the law doesn't sustain him in that opinion. It reads "within thirty days of the time when the officer was elected," and Judge Young will hardly maintain that the election of Major Swango occurred on any other day except August 3rd.

The discovery at Frankfort that Major Swango had failed to qualify within the time required by law created a flurry among his friends, especially among those who expected positions under him. The Major has the sympathy of his friends in his predicament, but as he alone is at fault, he will have to "grin and bear it."

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLECK.
There was a continuous rain all day last Friday.

Mrs. Anderson, of Dover, is here visiting her daughter at Mrs. Rachel Small's.

We have a new undertaker now—Henry Willis. He uses neither horses or hearse.

Mr. Bisset and son, of Maysville, are doing some work here for Mrs. Anna Wilson.

E. A. Calliss left for home to-day to attend to a law suit. Williamsburg is his home.

The hands working on the Christian Church are laid off a few days for want of material from Cincinnati.

Mrs. Jonas Myall has returned from Esenapia Springs, where she spent a few weeks. She was highly pleased and greatly benefited.

We had a heavy rain last Thursday evening and at night. The farmers seem to think they did not need it. I think it is all right.

Miss Jessie Laythum, one of our accomplished young ladies, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Turner, at Turner's Station, Henry County.

The champion tomato was laid on our counter Tuesday morning, September 1st, by Mr. Jonas Myall. It weighed one pound and fourteen ounces. Can Craddock beat that?

Miss May Polynus, of Maysville, was visiting Mrs. Rachel Small's last week, and in company with Mrs. Joe Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson went to the Blue Licks Monday.

There was a shooting scrape here Friday night. Lish Jones shot three times at George Brown, but missed him. A shot struck Jim Davis near the eye. The doctor thinks the wound is not fatal. All parties colored, and some of them drunk. No arrests as yet.

A Minister's Opinion.
Mr. Jacob Connor, a German Baptist minister at Royer's Ford, Montgomery County, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, colic and cramp in the stomach. I have never used any medicine with better or more satisfactory results. I consider it one of the best ever used in our family. For sale by Power & Reynolds."

"Henry is a great headworker," said the fond mother. "He won several prizes at college for sculling."—Washington Star.

"Before we were married," said she, "his displays of affection were positively overdone." "And now?" "They are very rare."—Indianapolis Journal.

FOSTER'S FORECASTS.

He Tells of a Storm Wave That will Cross the Continent This Week.

Foster's storm wave last week was on time. He says: "The next will be due to leave the Pacific coast about the 8th, cross the Rock-Allegheny Valley from 9th to 11th, and reach the Atlantic coast about the 12th. The important feature of this storm wave will be the radical change it will bring from summer's heat to fall, cool weather. Preceding this storm wave the weather will be warmer and following it quite cool, with frosts in many Northern localities. It will probably develop tornadoes East of the Mississippi river and hurricanes in the West Indies, and in the East Indies, the greatest force of the storm will be developed all around the earth about September 12th. At that time there will be four principal storm waves moving eastward north of latitude 30. On this continent the storm wave will be in the Eastern States, on the Atlantic coast. Following it another off the coast of Oregon, on the Northern Pacific. A third will be near Japan and a fourth in central Europe. Earthquake shocks may be expected at the same time in earthquake countries. I expect this disturbance to add further evidence that we are approaching a period of very great storms. The rain period that comes about every 52 days will come with this storm wave. Not much increase in the total rainfall in the United States, but a more general distribution of rainfall."

Dr. Dudley's lecture on Thursday afternoon, despite the inclement weather, was largely attended by a select and appreciative audience. She will lecture in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport in a short time. She begs to extend her thanks for the many kindnesses while here, and her grateful appreciation of the success which has rewarded her work. Mrs. Lena Nolin will take Mrs. Dudley's place in Maysville and Mason County in the interest of the Viavi Company, of Chicago. 1t

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

PROFESSOR JOHN S. VAN CLEVE, who is quite well known in Maysville, will be director of the musical department of the Georgetown, O., College the ensuing year.

The Maysville public will be glad to learn that Mlle. Decca will sing "Home, Sweet Home" and "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River" at her coming concert Friday evening.

The first proclamation of the marriage of Mr. James N. Kehoe and Miss Hannah Kane was announced at St. Patrick's Church yesterday. The ceremonies will take place Thursday, September 24.

For ulcers, scrofulous affections, boils, pimples and blood poison, Pioneer Sarsaparilla is commended to the masses. Placed within the reach of all. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

The friends of Mrs. S. B. Oldham will regret to learn that she is critically ill. She has been sick several months, but became much worse yesterday. There was no improvement in her condition this morning.

PROF. JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT retired from the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction this morning and was succeeded by Colonel Ed. Porter Thompson. The new State Board of Education will be composed of Superintendent Thompson, Attorney General Hendricks, Secretary of State Headley and Prof. John T. Gaines, of Louisville, and Prof. J. J. Dickey, of Breathitt County.

River News.

The Batchelor has resumed her regular days in the Pittsburgh trade.

Captain Tom Nolin went to Cincinnati Saturday to take the position of steward on one of the Portsmouth packets.

The White Collar Line has traded the steamer Big Sandy for the Cincinnati and Louisville Company's City of Madison, and $15,000 in cash.

The Congo and Stanley will pass down this evening and the St. Lawrence to-night. The Carrollton for Portsmouth and Boston for Pomeroy will pass up to-night.

The Carrollton and Congo are not large enough to accommodate the trade in the Cincinnati and Portsmouth line. The Carrollton turned fifteen passengers away at one point on a down trip last week, and on another trip went into Cincinnati with hogheads of tobacco piled three tier deep on her lower deck. A couple of the large sidewheelers will likely be placed in the trade soon—the City of Madison and St. Lawrence, or the St. Lawrence and Bonanza.

Taken as a whole, the boats plying the several trades on the Ohio river between Louisville and Pittsburgh were never in better condition for business than they are now. There's not a bad boat among them. Old ones not worth putting in complete repair have gone to the "bone-yard," and several new and handsome ones have taken their places. Others have been put in the most perfect order and repair, and more new ones are being built.—Courier-Journal.

Here and There.

Mr. John Cobb and bride arrived home last night.

Miss Hannah O'Hare arrived home last night after a pleasant visit to friends in Covington.

Miss Mary O'Donnell arrived home Saturday after a pleasant visit to friends in Covington.

Mr. J. C. Diltz, of Augusta, is in town to-day, the guest of his brother-in-law, Judge Coons.

Miss Celia O'Conner, of Chicago, arrived Saturday to resume her studies at the Academy of the Visitation.

Miss Mayme Comer leaves for Maysville, after spending a month with relatives in this city.—Daily Irontonian.

Mr. E. A. Robinson, of the Limestone Cigar Factory, has returned from a business trip through Eastern Kentucky.

Mrs. Jacob Trapp, Charles Trapp and Mr. Sam Otto have returned home after a trip to Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Ella Hayden and Master Hayden O'Donnell, of Chicago, are guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell, of Market street.

"Cleopatra" To-night.

"The play is a dramatization of Rider Haggard's 'Cleopatra,' and all who have read that fanciful story will realize that there is ample material in it for dramatic purposes. The strange eventful life of Cleopatra, most wonderful and most famous of women, affords romantic subject for all sorts of wild and fantastic imaginings. In the tale of Harmachis, Haggard gave free reign to his fancy for the marvelous and mysterious. The five scenes of the story, the secret crowning of Harmachis, the encounter with Cleopatra, love, treachery, revenge and death are powerfully presented. It is a play that demands accessories, however, in the shape of scenery and rich stage setting and costumes. The latter are supplied by McLean-Preseott."

The above is from the Louisville Commercial. "Cleopatra" will be the attraction at the opera house to-night. A first-class play by a first-class company. Reserved seat tickets at Nelson's.

Decca is "Home Again."

Some dozen or more years ago a little girl of unpretentious air, but of prepossessing appearance, romped and played over the hills of Mason County. No one then supposed that in this little girl were "the seeds of future greatness," to use a Shakespearean expression. To-day she returns to her Kentucky home covered with honor and glory, called by the leading European critics, "The American Jenny Lind."

Mlle. Decca still has the same sweet and unassuming presence that charmed her friends in her girlhood days. She regards it not only as a pleasure, but also a great privilege to sing to the people she loved so well, and her programme Friday evening has been arranged for the special benefit of her kins-folks of Kentucky, and will be one of the most attractive and enjoyable ever presented here. No one can afford to miss the big concert.

At the Kentucky conference of the M. E. Church, South, Friday, John William Hunter, of the Maysville district, was presented for trial and admitted. Bostwick Colgrove and John Wesley Williams, of Covington district; Mr. Ross and Jerry E. Johnson, of Shelbyville district; Franklin Cosby, of Danville district; Jackson Chandler and Louis G. Wallace, nephew of General Wallace, were also presented for trial and admitted to the conference.

We won't give names now, but several Maysville couples will plight their troth at the hymeneal altar this fall. When looking for wedding presents you can always find something very elegant in Ballenger's stock of jewelry and solid silver ware.

HAUCKE'S celebrated Reed and Brass Band left last night on the F. F. V. for Portsmouth to take part in the big parade there to-day. While waiting for the train they entertained the large crowd that followed them to the station with a few fine selections.

The MacLean-Preseott company arrived from Portsmouth yesterday morning. The stars are supported by an excellent company, and Manager Whiteley reports that they have played to big houses wherever they have appeared this season. At opera house to-night.

JOHN LOREE, of Nebraska, filed suit in the United States Court at Covington Saturday against 160 defendants. The action is to recover some 40,000 acres of land in Powell and Lee counties, Kentucky. The suit involves $1,000,000. Mr. Loree claims title through a Virginia patent issued by Patrick Henry, as Governor.

VERY great interest attaches at this time to the Government experiments at rain making, looking to the artificial production of rainfalls by means of aerial concussion. The problem of trade making (of longer standing and wider interest) has been solved to the satisfaction of many men, by means of newspaper advertising.—Printers' Ink.

HERMANN LANGE, the jeweler, of 181 Vine street, Cincinnati, has just returned from the East, where he selected a beautiful stock of fine watches, diamonds, silverware and imported novelties. Do not fail to call at the corner of Vine street and the Arcade when you are in the city. All his Maysville friends receive a warm welcome from Mr. Lange. It

NOW THAT the elections and fair, racing, &c., are over, and the wheat and tobacco is being handled generally, Frank Owens Hardware Co. are bringing to the front for sale hunting coats (canvass and leather), bird bags, loaded shells, ammunition of all kinds, and sportsmen's wear generally. Call and equip yourself in full for the winter's sport. Prices will suit the purchaser.

DR. M. TABLER, hitherto regarded as one of the wealthiest men of Central Kentucky, made an assignment Saturday at Harrodsburg. The liabilities are not stated, but his assets are placed at $300,000. Much of his money is tied up in Birmingham, Florence and Wichita real estate. The doctor is no doubt one of the many unfortunates caught in the "busted" real estate "boom."

THE city of Maysville will be within twenty days the best known city in America. The recent fuel gas invention will create more excitement throughout the country than all the oil and gas wells put together. Frank Owens Hardware Company have just received, clean and fresh, their vast stock of guns, imported direct from foreign makers, breech-loaders and muzzle-loading; also American makes, all of which they will sell very low.

HON. W. W. PENNELL, Brown County's Representative in the Legislature of Ohio, spent Sunday here as the guest of Mlle. Decca and her business manager Mr. Francis Leon Chrisman. Mlle. Decca is a granddaughter of General Hamer, one of Brown County's most gifted sons, and Representative Pennell takes great interest in her. During her visit to Columbus with the Marine Band last spring he was instrumental in her receiving a grand ovation from the members of the Legislature which was then in session.

The Oddfellows of Chicago have prepared plans for a temple that will be as high as Washington's monument. The entire ground space is to be built up to a height of fourteen stories. Above this the building extends six stories in the form of a square cross, the four spaces at the angles of the main building being left vacant. Above this is a tower-shaped structure fourteen stories high, making thirty-four stories altogether, with an aggregate height of 556 feet. The estimated cost is $3,500,000. The ground space covered is to be 177 by 233 feet.

We repeat that the Decca concert next Friday evening will be the great musical event of the season. As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column, the best of talent has been engaged for the occasion. Mlle. Decca is the greatest lyrical soprano in the world. Mr. H. B. Turpin is one of the leading baritones of the United States, having made a splendid reputation in Europe. Mr. Charles Rosenau, of our own city, is an artist of whose excellence we need not here speak. And the same can be said of Miss Lida Berry, the very clever and charming pianist.
